3. Applicant/Director/Trustee Tax Residency Information

Tax Residency and Tax Identification Number (TIN)

Each country has different rules which govern tax residency. For individuals, these rules are often based on whether your home is there, the time you spend there, or if you work there. If you are unsure about your tax residency, you should seek professional advice. You can be a tax resident of more than one country.

Either a TIN or a reason code for no TIN for each country of tax residency is required to be provided.

Note the below:

- If the person is a US citizen or resident, you must include USA as one of your countries of tax residency.
- If the person has listed Australia as a country of tax residency, insert reason code C in the TIN column.

Reason code for no TIN

- My country of tax residency does not issue TINs
- I have not been issued with a TIN by my country of tax residency
- My country of tax residency does not require disclosure of a TIN
